Monitoring Information

Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974 (Exceptions) order 1975

Details of any convictions must be given. Because of the nature of the work for which you are applying, you are required to state whether or not you have any convictions or criminal charges or summonses pending against you whether or not your conviction is regarded as 'spent'. These posts will also require the successful applicant to undertake a satisfactory disclosure check; however a criminal record will not necessarily be a bar to obtaining a position.

Have you ever been disqualified from working with children or vulnerable adults? YES / NO

Do you have any convictions or cautions that are not spent or actions pending? YES / NO

If yes, please give details below:

(Please include dates, length of caution/conviction, length of custodial sentence and type of conviction / caution. Also include any current proceedings against you.)

Motoring Offences and accidents (not included above):

(Please detail below any endorsements and/or penalty points, with dates and reasons, currently attached to your driving licence and details of motoring accidents in last 5 years)

If none, put "n/a"

Declaration:

I fully understand the reasons why the company requires this information in advance of employment and I fully understand the exception from the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974, where applicable. I declare that all of the information that I have supplied on this form is true and to the best of my knowledge and without omission of any facts that could have a bearing on selection decisions. I understand that if I am offered a position by the company this offer may be withdrawn if subsequently any of this information is found to be incorrect or incomplete. In addition, I am aware that, should this situation occur after I join the employment of the company, I will be liable to disciplinary action that could lead to dismissal.
